

Rapid fixer and replenisher RF 90

Storage and Handling

Concentrates have to be kept before mixing in the closed original package and stored at room temperatures (at 10 ... 25 °C, if possible).

It is recommended to wear protective gloves, when handling and working with concentrates and solutions.

Note the governmental regulations and laws, when disposing used chemicals.

For further information, please contact the manufacturer.